Abdullah Eric Ali is an Associate Attorney in the Long Beach office. He focuses on the defense of workers' compensation claims on behalf of employers, carriers, and third-party administrators. He strongly believes in the importance of proactive client communication and seeks to aggressively resolve cases quickly and cost-efficiently.

Abdullah was admitted to the State Bar of California in 2021. Prior to joining Albert & Mackenzie, he practiced workers' compensation defense at another firm. Further, prior to attending law school, he worked as a workers' compensation claims examiner on behalf of several different retail and hospital clients across California. His experience as a claims examiner motivated his decision to become an attorney so that he could zealously defend employers, carriers, and third-party administrators.

Abdullah graduated from California State University, Los Angeles with a dual major in Business Administration and Computer Information Systems in 2014. He then obtained his Juris Doctor with honors from Northern Illinois University College of Law in 2020, where he served as a Notes and Comments Editor on the Law Review.
