Alex Clark is a Senior Associate Attorney in the San Diego office. He strongly believes in a cost-saving and pragmatic approach to litigation.

Since Alex's admittance to the State Bar of California in 2014, his practice has focused on workers' compensation defense. Throughout his career, Alex has received numerous Take Nothing findings. In addition, his strategic approach has led to successful cross-examinations, including persuading a doctor to significantly decrease impairment from 42% to 12%.

Alex grew up in San Diego, California. His favorite aspect of being an attorney is the variation of responsibilities his role entails. From client interaction to taking a deep dive into preparation for a deposition, Alex enjoys it all.

Three words to best describe Alex are helpful, knowledgeable, and silly. Alex spends his free time with family and enriching his daughter's life with fun-filled adventures like trips to the zoo, museum, beach, etc. He also likes cooking and trying new restaurants.

His motto in life is, "Be flexible." Fun fact: Alex once cliff dived in an unknown jungle in Costa Rica.
