Alex Jeong is an Associate Attorney in the Orange office. Alex strongly believes in a client-centric approach, prioritizing cost-efficiency, and fostering strong relationships. With a commitment to providing swift resolutions and a cost-saving approach, Alex is dedicated to delivering reliable and qualified legal services, ensuring clients feel supported and confident in their legal matters.

Prior to obtaining admission to the bar, Alex honed his legal skills as a Law Clerk at Albert & Mackenzie. In 2019, he earned a degree in Sociology from the University of California, Santa Barbara, followed by the attainment of his Juris Doctor Degree from Chapman University School of Law in 2023. Alex has demonstrated his expertise in saving clients substantial amounts through skilled lien negotiations and defenses. His dedication to providing value is reflected in his approach to legal practice.

Born in Charlotte, North Carolina, and raised in southern California, Alex embodies the qualities of altruism, optimism, and honesty. Inspired by his mother's resilience and diligence in overcoming life's challenges, he embarked on a legal career to make a positive impact.

In his free time, Alex actively helps his family's business and finds enjoyment in golfing and playing paddleball and tennis, cooking, exercising, and attending music events. His diverse taste in music spans from K-pop to EDM and hip hop. Fun fact: Alex's most anticipated travel destinations are Korea, Japan, and Australia.
