Alexandra Geller is an Associate Attorney in the San Francisco office. She strongly believes in the importance of excellent client communication, which involves a consistent and proactive approach to achieve the most efficient and favorable outcome.

Alexandra was recently admitted to the State Bar of California in 2021. Since then, her practice has focused on workers' compensation defense. Alexandra graduated from California State University at Northridge, where she majored in Sociology. She obtained her Juris Doctor Degree from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 2021.

Alexandra is from Santa Rosa, California. She was inspired to pursue a career in law by the achievements of Ruth Bader Ginsburg, as well as her family. Her favorite part of being an attorney is creating meaningful relationships with her clients and colleagues, as well as being given the opportunity to learn something new every day.

One thing Alexandra cannot live without is her yoga mat. When she's not working, Alexandra is either staying active by doing yoga, going on a hike, or utilizing her cooking and baking skills in the kitchen. While almost impossible to choose her favorite food, she loves to grow her own basil and make homemade pesto.
