EDUCATION

Angela Bailey is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Inland Empire area office. She firmly believes in the importance of cultivating strong client relationships through prompt, thorough communication and efficient, cost-effective claims resolution.

- University of California, Riverside – B.A., Sociology

Admitted to the State Bar of California and all Federal District Courts in California in 2002.

Angela has specialized in workers' compensation defense throughout her career. Prior to joining Albert and Mackenzie, Angela served as a workers' compensation defense attorney across California, both with private firms and as in-house counsel. Her impressive track record includes numerous Take Nothing findings and successful cross-examinations, significantly reducing clients' exposure and costs.

- State Bar of California

Angela grew up in San Diego, California. Her passion for law, research, and writing fueled her ambition to become an attorney. Angela's favorite aspect of her role is the continuous opportunities for learning and growth, as each unique case presents new challenges and insights.

Beyond the courtroom, Angela enjoys spending quality time with her family, watching films, reading thought-provoking novels, and traveling. Guided by the motto, "Be kind. Treat others as you want to be treated," Angela brings compassion and integrity to both her personal and professional endeavors. Fun fact: Angela is conversational in French.

Specialties: Defense of workers' compensation claims on behalf of employers, insurers and third-party administrators.
