Angela Seki is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Orange area office. She strongly believes in the importance of client communication with a focus on resolving cases in the most cost-effective manner.

Throughout her workers' compensation career, Angela has obtained multiple Take Nothings and successfully defended Petitions for Reconsideration and Writs for appeal. Prior to joining Albert and Mackenzie, she was a workers' compensation defense Attorney throughout California.

Angela grew up in Holmdel, New Jersey. Her interests include traveling and learning about different cultures and history. Angela's favorite novel is Silent Night by Stanley Weintraub because it reminds her that there is always hope for peace despite the differences across countries and cultures.

In Angela's spare time, she enjoys bowling, arranging flowers, decorating for the holidays, and finding awesome deals at Home Goods. Her favorite holiday is Thanksgiving because it encompasses family, food, and gratitude. If Angela's life had a theme song, it would be "It's My Life" by Bon Jovi.

Three words to best describe Angela are loyal, compassionate, and hardworking. Her parents inspired her to pursue a career in law – they encouraged Angela to work hard, remain persistent, and quickly learn from mistakes. Angela lives by the phrase, "Success is not final, failure is not fatal. It is the courage to continue that counts."
