Angelina Romano is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Inland Empire office. She strongly believes in resolutely driving each claim toward cost effective and prompt resolution. She specializes in finding creative ways to thwart any and all barriers to this goal, created by the system and the opposition.

She was admitted to the State Bar of California 2013. Since that time, her practice has focused on personal injury, social security, and workers' compensation law. Before joining Albert and Mackenzie, she honed her expertise in workers' compensation law across southern California accumulating a remarkable record of more than 20 successful case Trials, with only a single instance of unfavorable verdict.

Angelina grew up in Corona, California. Her legal journey was inspired by her father, who originally aspired to be an attorney but felt a calling to become a minister. Angelina embarked on a path to fulfill her father's legal aspirations, relishing in the challenge of transforming vast number of records into winning strategies.

Three adjectives that best encapsulate Angelina are spontaneous, adventurous, and tenacious. Outside of the legal arena, she finds joy in singing, traveling, and exploring. If her life had a theme song, it would undoubtedly be Natural by Imagine Dragons. As for Angelina's hidden talent, she can sing operatically.
