EDUCATION

Anuujin Togtokhbayar is an Associate Attorney in the Long Beach office. She is committed to providing successful and efficient outcomes for her clients through effective client communication, collaboration, and strategic negotiation.

- University of California at Riverside – B.A. in Political Science/International Affairs

Admitted to the State Bar of California in 2024, Anuujin previously worked at a business litigation and real estate firm, and she also brings a diverse background of legal experience from her time clerking in other practice areas. As a proud Mongolian immigrant and first-generation college graduate, Anuujin was inspired to pursue a career in law by her own experiences navigating the legal system and supporting her community.

She was raised in Los Angeles, California. Outside of work, she enjoys swimming, attending live music events, exploring the outdoors, and traveling.

Specialties: Defense of workers' compensation claims on behalf of employers, insurers, and third-party administrators
