Christopher Warren is a Senior Associate Attorney in the San Francisco Office. He has worked nearly a decade defending workers' compensation claims on behalf of employer, carriers and third party administrators. Christopher's aggressive defense strategy centers on prioritizing closure of claims.

Christopher was admitted to the State Bar of California and the Eastern District of California for the U.S. District Court in 2010. Since that time, Christopher has practiced exclusively in the field of workers' compensation defense. Prior to joining Albert & Mackenzie, he worked as a workers' compensation defense attorney at two large statewide firms.

Christopher is a proud 2006 graduate of the University of California, Berkeley where he majored in Political Science. He then went on to obtain his Juris Doctor from the University of San Diego in 2009.
