Claire Meredith is a Senior Associate Attorney in the San Francisco office. With a steadfast commitment to fostering client relationships and a dedication to the judicious resolution of cases, she consistently achieves optimal outcomes in a cost-effective manner.

She was admitted to the State Bar of California and the Federal District Courts in California in 2014. Her experience has culminated in a career solely devoted to the intricacies of workers' compensation defense. Before her tenure with Albert & Mackenzie, Claire served as a defense attorney across the state of California.

Claire grew up in Fresno, California. As a fifth-generation attorney, she initially envisioned a career path different from her family's legacy. However, under the guidance of a mentor, she discovered her true calling in the realm of law. What Claire values most in her role is the human connection—building relationships with clients and colleagues, and the profound impact of her work on people's lives.

Beyond the courtroom, Claire's interests extend into the realms of fashion, art, and interior design. In her free time, Claire can be found engrossed in a good book. Her current favorite read is The Happiness Advantage by Shawn Achor.
