Cody Launder is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Encino office. With a steadfast commitment to effective client communication, Cody prioritizes resolving cases efficiently and cost-effectively.

Admitted to the State Bar of California in 2013, Cody has extensive experience in workers' compensation defense across the state. His favorite aspect of practicing law is building strong relationships through meaningful interactions with both clients and colleagues.

Originally from a small town near Toledo, Ohio, Cody enjoys California's beaches, sunshine, and hiking trails—and especially appreciates no longer needing to keep a snow shovel in his car.

Outside the office, Cody's interests include live music, traveling, and exploring nature with his family. His ideal weekend includes a day at the beach, enjoying fresh seafood and music, followed by a relaxing Sunday morning at the farmers market, and an afternoon spent at the park playing with his kids.
