Dave Suarez is a Senior Associate Attorney based in the Inland Empire office. He is dedicated to providing clients with cost-effective and timely representation aimed at achieving optimal economic outcomes. With a keen understanding of case valuation, Dave prioritizes clear and open communication to ensure clients are well-informed and confident in their litigation decisions.

Admitted to the State Bar of California in January 2003, Dave has spent over 22 years specializing in the defense of workers' compensation claims and related litigation. Throughout his distinguished career, he has successfully achieved multiple "Take Nothing" findings.

Dave grew up in Chino, California. He enjoys spending quality time with his two sons, often found playing golf or flag football together. An avid sports fan, Dave roots for the Miami Dolphins, Los Angeles Lakers, Anaheim Ducks, and Los Angeles Angels. If Dave weren't practicing law, he'd likely pursue a role within the National Football League.

His personal motto, "Be happy, be present," reflects his dedication to maintaining an attentive and positive approach in all facets of his life and career. Fun fact: Dave is the first in his family to earn a postgraduate degree.
