Garnar Adleman is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Orange County office. He specializes in the defense of workers' compensation cases on behalf of employers, insurers, and third-party administrators. Garnar is focused on client communications and aggressively defending employers and pushing for expeditious resolution of claims. He is also an expert in lien litigation obtaining numerous Take Nothing trial decisions.

Garnar was admitted to the California State Bar in 2002. Prior to joining Albert and Mackenzie, he worked at a small workers' compensation defense firm where he defended numerous self-insured clients, insurance carriers, third-party administrators, school districts, and cities.

In 1998 Garnar graduated from the University of Colorado at Boulder with a double major in Political Science and History. Garnar received his Juris Doctorate from the University of San Diego School of Law in 2002.
