EDUCATION

Jacqueline Jones is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Inland Empire area office. She strongly believes in resolving matters efficiently and effectively by focusing on goals and clear communication to clients.

- University of Southern California – Bachelors of Arts, Sociology

Admitted to the State Bar of California in 1991, Jacqueline brings a wealth of legal experience to her practice. Her distinguished career includes service as a Deputy Attorney General and 16 years as an Administrative Law Judge, presiding over matters in Occupational Safety and Health and Special Education. Prior to joining Albert & Mackenzie, she represented injured workers across California as an Applicant Attorney in workers' compensation.

Known for her optimism, fairness, and resilience, Jacqueline approaches each day with the mindset reflected in her favorite song, Lovely Day by Bill Withers. If given the chance to choose a mentor from any time in history, she would pick the trailblazing Honorable Constance Baker Motley.

Outside the office, Jacqueline enjoys bowling, music, and reading. A lifelong sports enthusiast, she cheers on the L.A. Clippers, Sparks and Lakers. Fun fact: She once appeared on the game show Wheel of Fortune.

Specialties: Defense of workers' compensation claims on behalf of employers, insurers and third-party administrators
