Jasjit (Jesse) Arora is a Managing Attorney in the Encino office. He is committed to exceeding client goals and objectives by working aggressively and effectively. Jesse's affable demeanor and timely communication enables him to successfully develop strong relationships with clients.

Jesse's talent and expertise have led to many accomplishments, such as favorably winning a stroke case valued at approximately seven million dollars, obtaining a Take Nothing finding on an SOL issue, and significantly lowering exposure of a claim by shifting liability to a co-defendant and increasing non-industrial apportionment to about 50%. Prior to joining Albert and Mackenzie, Jesse worked for a boutique workers' compensation defense firm where he gained trial and cross-examination experience. His former background as a medical historian also allows him to understand complex medical issues to relevant claims.

Jesse grew up in San Fernando Valley, California. When Jesse is not at work, he enjoys sports, video games, reading books and comics, watching movies, and hiking. Jesse's favorite book is The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy.

An ideal weekend for Jesse starts with a morning hike with his wife followed by a brunch as they watch sports. Jesse is a fan of the Los Angeles Lakers and Dodgers. He lives by the words, "The master understands that the universe is forever out of control."
