Jennifer Hamilton originally joined Albert and Mackenzie in 2009 as a Legal Assistant and now serves as a Senior Managing Partner in the Agoura Hills area office. She believes in zealous representation that moves files forward and ensures the best settlement possible.

Throughout Jennifer's workers' compensation career, she has obtained several Take Nothings and acquired various successful trial outcomes on discovery issues.

Jennifer grew up in Los Angeles, California. Her hobbies include sports, outdoor activities, and relaxing at the beach. When it's baseball season, Jennifer is rooting for the Los Angeles Dodgers. Jennifer lives by the words, "Don't quit. Suffer now and live the rest of your life as a champion." (Mohamed Ali)

If Jennifer had to choose one album to take to a deserted island, it would be Nevermind by Nirvana. Her current favorite Netflix series to watch is Queen's Gambit. Jennifer's favorite foods are sushi and Italian cuisine.

For as long as Jennifer can remember, she had always dreamt of pursuing a career as an Attorney. As for her hidden talent, she enjoys baking. Fun fact: Jennifer graduated undergrad in three years instead of the average four years.
