Jennifer Weston is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Inland Empire area office. She believes in the importance of client communication and utilizes aggressive litigation techniques to resolve cases in the most timely and cost-effective manner.

Jennifer was admitted to the State Bar of California in 1985 and the State Bar of Oregon in 1993. She has extensive experience in complex civil litigation, federal workers' compensation claims under the Longshore Act, and workers' compensation matters in Oregon and California. Throughout Jennifer's career, she has successfully obtained several Take Nothing findings.

Jennifer grew up in Arizona. While pursuing her undergraduate degree at the University of Arizona, Jennifer interned at the Public Defenders office, which ultimately became the catalyst for her career in law.

One thing she absolutely cannot live without is books. Jennifer's favorite novel is Little Women by Louisa May Alcott.

An ideal weekend for Jennifer consists of spending time with her grandchildren. Her hobbies include reading, traveling, cooking, and playing golf.
