Joi Fox is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Long Beach office. She focuses on the defense of workers' compensation claims on behalf of employers, carriers, and third-party administrators. Joi believes in the importance of client communication and collaboration to obtain the most cost effective resolution of a claim. She has handled a diverse array of claims and settlements, and is well versed with all phases of litigation, from discovery through the appellate process.

Joi was admitted to the State Bar of California in 2014. Prior to joining Albert & Mackenzie Joi worked at a large workers' compensation defense firm where she specialized in the defense of Division of Workers' Compensation audits/regulatory compliance, asbestos claims, complex multi-party claims, professional athlete claims, public safety Labor Code presumptions, and high exposure claims.

Joi graduated from California State University Long Beach, with a Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology in 2009. She then attended the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, where she served as co-president of the UC Hastings Black Law Students Association. In 2013 she obtained her Juris Doctor with a concentration in Civil Litigation and Dispute Resolution.
