Jordan Ott is a Supervising Attorney in the Fresno office. Jordan strongly believes in the importance of client communication and focuses on successfully resolving cases cost-effectively.

Jordan was admitted to the State Bar of California in 2021. Since that time, his practice has focused on workers' compensation defense. Prior to joining Albert and Mackenzie, he worked as a workers' compensation defense Attorney throughout California.

Jordan initially grew up in Germany. After several years, he moved to New Hampshire and now resides in northern California. Jordan's passion for history and negotiation skills inspired him to pursue a career as an attorney. His responsibility to ensure that the Workers' Compensation system isn't misused is what Jordan enjoys most about his job.

Jordan is a guitarist, having played the guitar for over 14 years and performed with multiple bands throughout California. If he had to choose one album to take to a deserted island it would be "Come Away With Me" by Norah Jones.

As for Jordan's favorite novel, he enjoys The Lord of the Rings trilogy because it shows that even the most underestimated people can create a positive change in the world.
