Kerry Tepper is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Agoura Hills office. Known for his aggressive defense against claims, Kerry zealously works towards prompt and favorable settlements and resolutions.

For over 20 years, Kerry has effectively cross-examined hundreds of litigants and expert witnesses in depositions and trials to achieve favorable results for his clients. He has proven himself essential to his clients, often aiding in formulating plans for cross-examining opposing doctors in workers' compensation cases. Kerry's background includes workers' compensation, personal injury, employment, medical malpractice law, and numerous trials and arbitrations.

Kerry grew up in southern California. The infinite learning in law inspired Kerry to pursue a career as an Attorney. He lives by the phrase, "Work hard, play hard."

When time permits, he enjoys playing racquetball and going surfing and snow skiing. Aside from Kerry's active hobbies, he also enjoys playing the acoustic guitar. An ideal weekend for Kerry comprises of spending time with his family and friends barbecuing or attending a sporting activity.

Kerry's favorite novel is Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini because it enlightens readers about other societies in the world. Fun fact: Before law school, he traveled to almost every state in the U.S., various countries in Europe, and Israel and Egypt all in nine months.
