Kristine Nikoghosyan is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Encino office. She emphasizes client communication and aggressive litigation with the goal of obtaining the most favorable outcomes for clients and resolving cases in the most cost-effective manner.

Kristine was admitted to the State Bar of California in 2010. Since 2011, her practice has focused exclusively on workers' compensation defense. Throughout this time, she has dedicated her practice exclusively to workers' compensation defense, honing her expertise in this specialized area. Notably, Kristine has achieved remarkable success in her career, gaining successful cross-examinations of doctors, fraud convictions, and more. Her favorite aspect of her role is interacting with people.

Kristine grew up in Armenia and moved to the United States at the age of 18. Having lived in the winters and snowy landscapes of Armenia, she has developed a deep appreciation for the warmth and sunshine that California offers. If there were a theme song that encapsulates Kristine's outlook on life, it would be Don't Worry, Be Happy by Bob Marley.

In three words, Kristine can best be described as passionate, loyal, and humorous. In her free time, she enjoys cooking, baking, and gardening. An ideal weekend for Kristine involves creating cherished memories with her children at Legoland or indulging in a serene getaway to Cambria.

While Kristine has traveled to numerous destinations, her heart holds a special place for Italy. Having visited the country multiple times, she remains captivated by its rich history, vibrant culture, and magnificent art. Fun fact: Kristine traveled through seven countries in Europe in 11 days.
