Leor Makover is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Encino Office. He provides diligent and determined representation in his defense of employers, insurers and third-administrators. He is dedicated to mitigating client exposure through proactive case management and aggressive litigation.

Leor was admitted to the State Bar of California in 2013. Prior to joining Albert and Mackenzie, he was a prosecutor with the Los Angeles City Attorney's office Anti-Gang Unit and later joined the Complex Civil Litigation Unit. After leaving the City Attorney's office Leor practiced workers' compensation defense at a firm in Woodland Hills.

Leor attended Pepperdine University School of Law where in 2013 he earned his Juris Doctorate and graduated with Certificates in Alternative Dispute Resolution and Criminal Legal Practice. Before attending law school, Leor received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from UCSD.
