EDUCATION

Manny Ruiz is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Long Beach office. He is known for providing strategic legal counsel and representation to a wide range of clients, from mid-sized businesses to major corporations. With exceptional communication, negotiation, and analytical skills, Manny has established a strong track record of reducing liability and securing favorable outcomes.

ADMISSIONS

Admitted to the State Bar of California in 2016, Manny has focused his practice on workers' compensation defense, personal injury, and employment law. Before joining Albert & Mackenzie, he worked as a defense attorney across California. Career highlights include obtaining a "Take Nothing" finding and successfully resolving 25 cases in a single day at a mass informal settlement conference.

Manny grew up in Hesperia, California. Three words that best describe him are confident, dependable, and ambitious. As a loyal Los Angeles Dodgers and Las Vegas Raiders fan, Manny's on a mission to visit every Major League Baseball stadium (so far, he's crossed 8 out of 30 off his list).

Specialties: Defense of workers' compensation claims on behalf of employers, insurers and third-party administrators.
