EDUCATION

Manpreet Cheema is an Associate Attorney based in the Fresno office. She is currently practicing law at Albert & Mackenzie, where she focuses on representation of employers in workers' compensation claims. She holds a Juris Doctor from the University of California, Davis, with an emphasis on efficient case resolution and clear communication.

• University of California, Davis – B.A. in International Relationships

Manpreet was admitted to the State Bar of California in 2025. Prior to joining Albert & Mackenzie, she gained foundational experience in workers' compensation defense as a Law Clerk at a statewide defense firm, where she supported attorneys in case strategy and legal research.

She earned her undergraduate degree in International Relations from the University of California, Davis, and went on to receive her Juris Doctor from McGeorge School of Law with a concentration in Elder and Health law. Her legal career began unexpectedly after taking a political science course in college that sparked her interest in advocacy and reasoning.

Manpreet grew up in Live Oak, California. In her free time, she enjoys reading, playing volleyball, and spending time with her family, friends, and dog.

Specialties: Defense of workers' compensation claims on behalf of employers, insurers and third-party administrators
