Mei Sung is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Orange office. With a strong belief in the importance of client communication, Mei consistently strives to resolve cases successfully and cost-effectively.

Admitted to the State Bar of California and the Federal District Courts in California in 2002, Mei has specialized in workers' compensation defense throughout her career. Before joining Albert and Mackenzie, she worked across California as a workers' compensation defense attorney, gaining experience with both private firms and as in-house counsel. Throughout Mei's career, she has successfully obtained numerous "Take Nothing" findings. She thrives on the challenges and twist and turns that each case brings.

Colleagues describe Mei as responsible, kind, and loyal. Outside of work, she loves traveling and experiencing new places, whether exploring local gems or venturing across the globe. Her favorite destinations include New Zealand, Tokyo, Bora Bora, and Rome. Mei's top bucket list goal is to travel the world and visit as many places as possible.
