Michael Winner is an Associate Attorney in the Long Beach office. Michael strongly believes in the significance of client communication, striving for the successful resolution of cases in the most cost-effective manner.

Before attaining admission to the bar, Michael served as a Law Clerk at Albert & Mackenzie, where he honed his legal skills. His pre-bar experience also includes extensive work in litigation, showcasing his dedication to the intricacies of legal practice. Michael earned his degree in English from California State University, Long Beach, and subsequently obtained his Juris Doctor Degree from Pepperdine Caruso School of Law. His favorite aspect of his role is interacting with clients.

Michael grew up in France and moved to the United States at the age of six. In his free time, Michael indulges in indoor rock climbing and cherishes moments spent with family. If one word were to encapsulate Michael, it would undoubtedly be "determined."
