Michelle Pluth serves as the Senior Director of Client Services in the Sacramento office. She strongly believes in the firm's mission to provide aggressive defense of claims and timely, proactive communication to our clients.

In 2013, Michelle joined Albert and Mackenzie as a Hearing Representative. Since then, Michelle has promoted the firm's mission and philosophy and became the liaison between clients and attorneys. Her countless years of experience as a Supervisor for Specialty Risk Services, now known as Sedgwick CMS, provided Michelle with a unique perspective and understanding of client needs.

Michelle grew up in northern California. Her hobbies include camping, hiking, scuba diving, and enjoying nature and the outdoors. In her spare time, she also likes to do art projects, work in the yard and read. Michelle's favorite place in the world is at home with her husband and family.

Two things Michelle absolutely cannot live without are caffeine and eight hours of sleep. Her ideal weekend includes reading a book and camping alongside a river with her husband and goldendoodle. She enjoys reading crime novels for the thrill and suspense.

As for Michelle's favorite cuisines, she is a big fan of both Mexican and Italian food. She lives by the phrase, "Live life to the fullest."
