Mikki Davis is a Hearing Representative in the Agoura Hills office. She is committed to achieving swift, strategic resolutions while building strong relationships with clients.

Mikki brings over 20 years of experience in the insurance industry, including 13 years handling workers' compensation claims, before transitioning into her current role as a Hearing Representative. Her background gives her a unique perspective in assisting clients, allowing her to approach cases with both technical expertise and practical insight.

Mikki grew up in over 13 different cities in California. She values the dynamic nature of workers' compensation cases, appreciating that each matter presents different paths and opportunities. Mikki enjoys investigating cases in depth and actively seeks out educational opportunities to continually strengthen her skills.

Outside of work, Mikki enjoys attending live theatrical performances and has a love for 1980s films, with favorites including "Sixteen Candles" and "The Breakfast Club". She lives by the motto, "Treat others as you would like to be treated."
