Nora is a Senior Associate Attorney based at our Inland Empire office. Her belief in the aggressive defense of claims, combined with exceptional client communication, has led to a proven track record of early and cost-effective resolutions.

Nora's extensive experience has resulted in her receiving numerous post-term 'Take Nothings' throughout her career, including on cumulative trauma claims. Her thorough understanding of the potential pitfalls of these affirmative defenses, along with her ability to navigate around them, has proven to be an invaluable asset to our team. Before joining Albert and Mackenzie, Nora worked for a reputable workers' compensation defense firm, and she has also gained experience on the applicant side, making her adept at handling claims for defendants.

Her experience has given her exceptional insight into negotiation and litigation techniques, particularly when dealing with challenging attorneys. Nora's love for the law and its intricacies was instilled in her by her father, a retired attorney, who also shares her passion for philosophy and brain teasers.

Nora's dedication to excellence extends beyond her professional life. She is from Sonoma County, wine country, and enjoys exploring the outdoors and hiking. Nora has a keen interest in travel and lists a visit to the Grand Canyon as number one on her bucket list. She also looks forward to her yearly visits to Hawaii with her parents, who have been instrumental in her life and career.

Nora's motto in life is to "Make time for what's most important." Fun fact: Nora's been to over 30 music concerts.
