Pravin A. Singh is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Agoura Hills office. He strongly believes in ensuring that his clients are kept apprised of important updates so they can work as a team to efficiently resolve any issues and claims.

Admitted to the State Bar of California in 2012, Pravin has dedicated his career to workers' compensation and employment law. Before joining Albert & Mackenzie, he practiced workers' compensation on both the defense and applicant sides, representing employers, insurers, and injured workers across California. Pravin's well-rounded experience allows him to approach claims strategically.

Pravin grew up in Orange County, California. He has always been drawn to analytical thinking and advocacy. Pravin's passion for reading, debating, and writing naturally led him to a career as an attorney.

In his free time, Pravin enjoys staying active and expanding his knowledge through literature. One of his favorite books is "Fooled by Randomness" by Nassim Nicholas Taleb.
