Richard Park is a Senior Associate Attorney in the Orange County area office. He is focused on the defense of workers' compensation claims on behalf of employers, carriers, and third-party administrators. Richard strongly believes in the importance of client communication and settling cases in the most expeditious and cost-effective manner.

He was admitted to the State Bar of California and all of the Federal District Courts in California in 2009. Since that time, his practice has focused on workers' compensation defense. Prior to joining Albert and Mackenzie, he worked at a prominent workers' compensation defense firm in southern California.

Richard graduated from the University of California at Berkeley where he majored in Molecular Cell Biology. He then obtained his Juris Doctor Degree from Southwestern University School of Law. While in law school, he helped form the Southwestern Law School Tax Law Society and initiated the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program for the elderly and low-income taxpayers in the Los Angeles community.
