Stewart Raskin is an Associate Attorney in the Encino office. He strongly believes in a cost-saving approach to resolve cases and building relationships with clients.

Admitted to the State Bar of California in 2023, Stewart focuses his practice on workers' compensation defense, as well as medical malpractice and premises liability matters. Before joining Albert & Mackenzie, he represented clients across California in medical malpractice and premises liability defense. As an attorney, he enjoys the critical thinking, analysis and unique facts that come with each case.

Stewart earned his undergraduate degree in Philosophy from UCLA and received his Juris Doctor from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 2022.

Stewart grew up in Los Angeles, California. Outside of the office, he enjoys writing, playing guitar, and spending weekends with his wife and children, who have been his greatest inspiration for pursuing a career in law. His favorite music genre is rock.
