Su Tran is an Associate Partner in the Orange office. Su focuses on client communication to achieve favorable and expedited outcomes of claims through creative and cost-effective approaches.

Su has extensive legal experience and has successfully litigated cases resulting in Take Nothing judgments. Prior to joining Albert and Mackenzie, she was a workers' compensation defense Attorney representing law firms throughout southern California.

Su grew up in Hawthorne, California. She lives by the phrase, "To travel is to live." Her favorite place in the world is Peru. If Su could pick up a new skill, she would like to learn Spanish and speak the language fluently.

Three words to describe Su are resilient, loyal, and persistent. Her favorite novel is Little Women by Louisa May Alcott. On Su's bucket list, she would like to travel the world.

With a love for food, Su's ideal weekend comprises of visiting new restaurants. As for her secret talent, she can cook an amazing garlic noodle dish that rivals famous restaurants that are well-known for this dish.
