Tony J. Lewandowski is a Hearing Representative in the Sacramento area office. He is diligently focused on the defense of workers' compensation claims and specializes in obtaining approval of walk through settlements, lien negotiation and attendance at hearings for the Northern California region. Tony's work with adjusters and customers has yielded timely and cost-effective results throughout his career. His exposure to varying sizes of employers and severity of claims has led to creative and effective problem solving and issue resolution.

Tony has more than 20 years of experience adjusting, supervising and managing for insurance carriers, including Kemper and The Zenith. He attended San Diego State University where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics in 1997. He is a highly sought after speaker, having provided multiple educational seminars for employers, helping them better understand their role in the Workers' Compensation System.
